Week 4 Overview

God Is Holy and Near

Scripture Reading

Read the primary text for this week.

Isaiah 6

Scripture (BSB): Isaiah 6

Isaiah's Commission

- 1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted; and the train of His robe filled the temple.
- 2 Above Him stood seraphim, each having six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying.
- 3 And they were calling out to one another: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Hosts; all the earth is full of His glory.”
- 4 At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook, and the temple was filled with smoke.
- 5 Then I said: “Woe is me, for I am ruined, because I am a man of unclean lips dwelling among a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of Hosts.”
- 6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar.
- 7 And with it he touched my mouth and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your iniquity is removed and your sin is atoned for.”

8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying: “Whom shall I send? Who will go for Us?” And I said: “Here am I. Send me!”

9 And He replied: “Go and tell this people, ‘Be ever hearing, but never understanding; be ever seeing, but never perceiving.’

10 Make the hearts of this people calloused; deafen their ears and close their eyes.

Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed.”

11 Then I asked: “How long, O Lord?” And He replied: “Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are left unoccupied and the land is desolate and ravaged,

12 until the LORD has driven men far away and the land is utterly forsaken.

13 And though a tenth remains in the land, it will be burned again. As the terebinth and oak leave stumps when felled, so the holy seed will be a stump in the land.”

Weekly Focus

Week 4 begins a new section in the Manna curriculum: God Is Holy. After establishing God as Creator, Image-Giver, and King, Scripture now draws us into a personal encounter with who God is in His holiness.

Isaiah 6 shows us that God’s holiness does not create distance—it reveals truth. God is utterly holy, completely other, and yet He draws near to sinful people in grace.

This week establishes three foundational realities:

- God is perfectly holy
- Humanity is unclean and undone before Him
- God graciously makes a way for sinners to remain in His presence

Big Truth

Because God is holy and near, we respond with humility, repentance, and worship.

God’s holiness exposes sin, but His nearness provides cleansing. This tension shapes the rest of Scripture and prepares the way for understanding sin, mercy, and redemption.

Primary Text Summary

Isaiah’s Vision

Isaiah sees the LORD seated on a throne, exalted and surrounded by heavenly beings declaring His holiness. God's glory fills the temple, and creation trembles in response.

Isaiah's Confession

Confronted by God's holiness, Isaiah becomes aware of his sinfulness and the sin of his people. Holiness reveals reality—it strips away self-righteousness and false security.

God's Grace

God does not destroy Isaiah. Instead, He cleanses him, removes his guilt, and restores him for service. Holiness leads to mercy, not separation.

Sermon Emphasis

The sermon will focus on:

- God's holiness as absolute and unmatched
- Humanity's response of confession and humility
- God's gracious nearness through cleansing

This sermon introduces the heart posture required for everything that follows in the Christian life.

Group & Discipleship Flow

- Kids will learn that God is holy, powerful, and loving.
- Youth will wrestle with awe, sin, and God's forgiveness.
- Adults will explore holiness, confession, and grace.
- Families, Singles, and Spouses will practice confession, repentance, and worship together.

Each environment will help participants encounter God—not just learn about Him.

Outcome Goals

By the end of Week 4, participants should:

- Understand God's holiness more clearly
- Recognize their need for God's grace
- Practice confession and repentance
- Respond to God with worship and obedience

Teaching Summary

Isaiah encounters God seated on a throne, holy and glorious. God’s holiness reveals Isaiah’s sinfulness and the sin of his people. Yet God does not cast Isaiah away. God initiates cleansing, removes guilt, and restores Isaiah for service.

Holiness exposes truth. Grace makes relationship possible.

Icebreaker: “Comfortable or Awkward?”

Read a few scenarios (meeting a celebrity, being called out publicly, apologizing first, being corrected).

Have students vote: comfortable or awkward.

Transition:

“Tonight we’re talking about what happens when people come face to face with a holy God.”

ENCOUNTER — 10–20 Minutes

Leader Setup:

“As we read Isaiah’s vision, pay attention to what he sees, how he responds, and what God does next.”

Scripture Reading

Isaiah’s Vision

Scripture (BSB): Isaiah 6:1–4

- 1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted; and the train of His robe filled the temple.
- 2 Above Him stood seraphim, each having six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying.
- 3 And they were calling out to one another: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Hosts; all the earth is full of His glory.”

4 At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook, and the temple was filled with smoke.

ANCHOR — 20–35 Minutes

Teaching Point:

Isaiah sees God as holy, glorious, and unmatched. God's holiness is overwhelming — not because God is mean, but because God is pure and powerful.

When Isaiah realizes who God is, he also realizes who he is. God's holiness exposes Isaiah's sin, not to shame him, but to show him the truth.

Scripture Connection:

Scripture (BSB): Isaiah 6:5-7

5 Then I said: “Woe is me, for I am ruined, because I am a man of unclean lips dwelling among a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of Hosts.”

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar.

7 And with it he touched my mouth and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your iniquity is removed and your sin is atoned for.”

God does not destroy Isaiah. God cleanses him. Grace comes before calling.

Key Line:

God's holiness reveals sin, but God's nearness brings forgiveness.

RESPOND — 35–50 Minutes

Group Discussion:

- Why do you think Isaiah felt undone when he saw God?
- How is God's holiness different from human perfectionism?
- Why is confession hard?
- What helps you trust that God forgives instead of rejects?

Allow silence. Let students think.

SEND — 50–60 Minutes

Weekly Challenge

This week, when you become aware of sin or failure, choose honesty instead of hiding. Confess it to God and trust His forgiveness.

Memory Verse

Scripture (BSB): Isaiah 6:3

3 And they were calling out to one another: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Hosts; all the earth is full of His glory.”

Prayer

Invite students to quietly ask God for clean hearts and deeper awe.

God Is Holy and Near

Big Idea: Because God is holy and near, we respond with humility, repentance, and worship.

Primary Text: Isaiah 6

Week 4 Sermon

God Is Holy and Near

Introduction

Many people think of holiness as distance — something cold, unreachable, or intimidating. But Isaiah 6 shows us something different. God's holiness does not push Isaiah away; it reveals truth and invites transformation.

After seeing God as Creator, Image-Giver, and King, Scripture now brings us face to face with who God is.

When Isaiah encounters the holy God, everything changes.

Scripture Reading

Isaiah 6

Scripture (BSB): Isaiah 6

Isaiah's Commission

- 1 In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted; and the train of His robe filled the temple.
- 2 Above Him stood seraphim, each having six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying.
- 3 And they were calling out to one another: "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Hosts; all the earth is full of His glory."
- 4 At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook, and the temple was filled with smoke.

5 Then I said: “Woe is me, for I am ruined, because I am a man of unclean lips dwelling among a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of Hosts.”

6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar.

7 And with it he touched my mouth and said: “Now that this has touched your lips, your iniquity is removed and your sin is atoned for.”

8 Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying: “Whom shall I send? Who will go for Us?” And I said: “Here am I. Send me!”

9 And He replied: “Go and tell this people, ‘Be ever hearing, but never understanding; be ever seeing, but never perceiving.’

10 Make the hearts of this people calloused; deafen their ears and close their eyes. Otherwise they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed.”

11 Then I asked: “How long, O Lord?” And He replied: “Until the cities lie ruined and without inhabitant, until the houses are left unoccupied and the land is desolate and ravaged,

12 until the LORD has driven men far away and the land is utterly forsaken.

13 And though a tenth remains in the land, it will be burned again. As the terebinth and oak leave stumps when felled, so the holy seed will be a stump in the land.”

Point 1 — God Is Perfectly Holy

Isaiah’s vision begins with God seated on a throne — high, exalted, and unmatched. God’s holiness is not a quality among many; it defines who He is.

The seraphim cry out “Holy, holy, holy,” declaring God’s complete purity, power, and uniqueness. God’s glory fills the temple, and creation responds with awe.

Holiness means God is utterly different from us — not just morally better, but completely other.

Point 2 — God’s Holiness Exposes Human Sin

Isaiah’s first response is not celebration — it is confession. Standing before a holy God reveals truth about ourselves. Isaiah recognizes his sin and the sin of his people.

God’s holiness does not create shame for shame’s sake. It creates clarity. Isaiah finally sees reality as it is.

This moment prepares us to understand sin rightly — not as mistakes, but as a condition revealed by God’s holiness.

Point 3 — God Draws Near with Grace

God does not leave Isaiah undone. God acts first. A burning coal touches Isaiah's lips, his guilt is removed, and his sin is atoned for.

Holiness does not destroy Isaiah — it restores him. God's nearness brings cleansing, not rejection.

Only after Isaiah is cleansed does God invite him into service. Grace always comes before calling.

Big Truth Revisited

Because God is holy and near, we respond with humility, repentance, and worship.

Holiness shows us who God is. Nearness shows us who God saves.

Call to Response

Consider:

- Where have you lost a sense of awe before God?
- What sin has God's holiness revealed in your heart?
- How might confession and repentance lead you into deeper worship?

God is holy — and God is near.

Transition to Groups

As you move into groups and home discipleship this week, allow Isaiah's encounter to shape your own posture before God.

Next week, we will see how sin enters the story — and why God's holiness matters so deeply.
